Instruction to authors

Abstract

It should be written in English and not exceed 500 words. The Abstract should be informative, convey the essence of the study or review and should be understandable to the reader without reading the publication itself when relevant. When referring to a published article, it should not contain material that is not in the main text of the publication.

Title, names and addresses of authors

The title should be concise (no more than 70 characters) and should not contain abbreviations. Standard terminology should be used in the title to facilitate information retrieval and indexing; for example, 'Epidemiological survey of blackleg in cattle in France' (topic, disease, species, country).

The family names of authors should be preceded by their initials and followed by a superscript bracketed Arabic number. The corresponding author should be identified with an asterisk and an email address supplied. The full address of each author should be given below the list of names, as follows:

H. Jones ⁽¹⁾, M.L. Smith ⁽²⁾ & M. Webber ^{(2)*}

(1) Department of Animal Studies, Centre for Environmental Research, 12 Wxxx Street, London WI xxxx, United Kingdom
